

Alex Hocevar

Director Digital Services & Emerging Technologies

Alex's focus at the Toronto Public Library is on advancing its digital strategies by supporting innovation, enabling technical solutions and leveraging strategic opportunities as new technologies emerge.

Alex has held a number of leadership positions, most recently as the Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation's Executive Director, Strategy and Transformation. In this role Alex was responsible for leading the transformation of OLG's Customer Experience as the organization progressed through a change in operating model. He has been involved in numerous transformation initiatives affecting the customer experience in public and private sector organizations.

